TRAVEL TO TURKEY

ISTANBUL

Istanbul is a world-famous city in Turkey. It's the city of four empires. There are many incredible buildings and structures including Topkapı Palace and Hagia Sophia Museum. It's the place where you can taste local and international dishes. If you like shopping, there are lots of shopping streets, open markets and shopping centres. You can see the Bosphorus' amazing view from a boat. It's once-in-a-lifetime experience.

ORDU

It's a port city on the Black Sea coast of Turkey. Boztepe Hill is the most visited place which offers a panoramic view of the city from 450 m above sea level. Ethnography Museum, Ünye Castle and the ruins of the Byzantine Jason Church are some other popular places in Ordu. There are various recreational activities for visitors, and you can even try paragliding and skydiving in the city.

ÇANAKKALE

It's an important centre of tourism in Turkey. It lies on the southern coast of Dardanelles Strait that connects the Aegean and Marmara Seas. The city is beautiful in all seasons. It has wide beaches, ruins, castles, green villages and ancient sites. Troy and Gallipoli are two most popular places. There are many other tourist attractions both in and around the city. People who are interested in museums can visit Archaeological Museum and Naval Museum.

ANTALYA

It's a city on the Mediterranean coast of south-western Turkey which is one of the most popular cities for beach holidays. It's the Turkish capital of tourism. The city attracts millions of local and international tourists every year because it has many all-inclusive holiday resorts. Tourists can taste lots of cold Mediterranean dishes in the city. Apart from its cuisine, you can visit many old sites around the city.
